Congratulations to the 2018-2019 Baldwin County Teachers of the Year!

The Coalition hosted a banquet on March 22 to recognize this year's Teacher of the Year from each of the 45 Baldwin County Public Schools. The county winners were announced the same evening and will go on to compete at the district and state levels.

Honorees received a gift bag that included a plaque and other goodies donated by our sponsors. The gift bag itself was also a special gift. Each bag was uniquely designed for each honoree by a very special local artist, Weslyn Towle. An early graduate from Daphne High School, Weslyn has been creating art since she was very young. She held her first gallery showing at the age of 14, and has been selling her artwork across the country ever since. She will attend design school in New York this fall.

The Grand Hotel provided a beautiful venue for the event. Foley High School's Air Force JROTC presented colors and the Steel Drum Band provided entertainment. Baldwin County Sheriff Huey Hoss Mack delivered a wonderful keynote address.

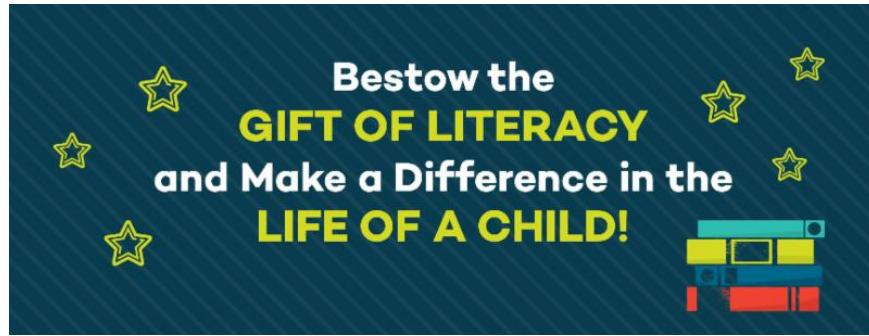

We appreciate the support of everyone who made this event possible, especially our sponsors:

Baldwin County Sewer Service
OWA
Scholastic
Storage Plus of Baldwin County
The Wharf Orange Beach
Trustmark National Bank
Baldwin County Federal Credit Union
Chick-fil-A
JJPR Agency
Old Tyme Feed
Tanger Outlet
The Gulf Bowl
The Little Cake Shop
